CURRICULUM COMMITTEE MEETING
April 17, 2000

The LCBAS Curriculum Committee met on April 17, 2000, at 11:00 a.m. in the Dean's Conference Room.

Members Present: T. Boldrey, M. Brown, S. Farris, T. Ivarie, and K. Ketler
Guests: L. Butler and M. Izadi

The meeting was called to order by M. Brown.

MINUTES

S. Farris (Boldrey) moved to approve the minutes of April 12, 2000, as published. Motion carried unanimously.

OLD BUSINESS

School of Technology

Course revision of INT 2200G – Materials Science T. Boldrey (Farris) moved to approve this course revision proposal. Motion carried unanimously.

Course revision of GEL/INT 3300G – Science and Technology – A Promise or a Threat? S. Farris (Boldrey) moved to approve this course revision proposal as revised. Motion carried unanimously.

Course revision of EIU 4012G – Women and Technology – S. Farris (Boldrey) moved to approve this course revision proposal. Motion carried unanimously.

LCBAS Curriculum Committee By-Laws

Several suggestions were made to revise the by-laws. Committee agreed to leave the membership on the committee as stands, revise sections regarding publication and distribution of the agenda and minutes for electronic media (e-mail), and add language to allow for virtual meetings and/or voting. M. Brown and P. Hill will revise the language of the by-laws and distribute them to the committee for comments before sending them to the faculty for vote. The goal is to get the faculty to vote on the revised by-laws before this semester ends.

NOTE: Proposals have been coming forth from the different curriculum committees without the signature of the Chair of the appropriate curriculum committee and the Chair of the School or Department. In the future, proposals without appropriate signatures will not be accepted. A cover memo with the proposal is acceptable.

NEW BUSINESS

School of Technology

L. Butler presented the proposal for a course revision of EIU 4001G Technology and Society – The course has been revised and expanded from a 2 sem. hr. course to a 3 sem. hr. course in accordance with the new General Education requirements for a Senior Seminar. Electronic research and presentation, group projects, critical thinking and writing components were expanded. Some revisions were suggested. It was agreed to place this item on the agenda for vote at the next meeting.

NEXT MEETING

The last meeting of the semester will be on Wednesday, May 3, 2000, at 11:00 a.m. in the Dean's Conference Room, 307 LH.
